Submission:

The final project should be submitted in a Word or PDF format via email to the course instructor by the deadline specified in the course syllabus. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Conclusion:

The final project is an opportunity for you to showcase your understanding of Bitcoin and its impact on the world. The essay should demonstrate your ability to analyze and synthesize information and present it in a clear and concise manner. Good luck with your final project!